Arts and Crafts Exhibition

Paviljoen – Saturday 13th September

What a lovely day we had on Saturday, 13th September! The weather was letting us down, but that didn't deter the villagers. The Paviljoen was buzzing with villagers, and it was so nice to see so many familiar faces out and about.

The hall looked wonderful with all the art and craft on display. Our talented villagers showed off paintings, quilt work, knitting, pottery, model building, finger puppets and so much more, a real treat to wander around and admire.

A very big thank you to Wilhelmina Starke (top left) and Ria Eckhardt (bottom left), who did a fantastic job organizing the event. And of course, thanks also to all the villagers who brought in their beautiful craft and art work to share with everyone – you really made the day special.

Deadline for Dorpskrant
24th of the month.

Hi de Hi villagers

Spring is definitely in the air!

The days are getting sunnier, though the wind still likes to remind us it's around.

Everywhere you look, the gardens are bursting with colour. I managed to pick 80 irises from my own garden and shared them with friends — such a joy to spread a bit of spring cheer.

It's been another busy month with plenty of activities. Happy Hour was lively as always, and the Exhibition was a real treat.

The van trip to the Diva Exhibition was also a great success — we had a full van, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it.

You may have noticed that the pile of roofing material has now disappeared from the grass, which can only mean one thing: most of the roofs are now repaired. What a relief!

Looking ahead, we'll be heading back to the Palm Springs Hot Pools for a relaxing soak in the beautiful warm water. Keep an eye out for further details — it's sure to be another full van!

Until next time, enjoy the sunshine and the blossoms.

It's the time of the year again that we have our yearly Bokhorst dinner.

For our new villagers - a little background. Bob Bokhorst was one of our villagers for a long time, until his passing. He left his estate to the village, to be used for the villagers. The Trust decided at the time, that the Society (social club) would receive money to organize activities. Also, there would be an annual dinner for the villagers in the Paviljoen, paid for by the estate. So, Bob, thank you very much, we are enjoying the dinners and the activities!

When: Friday 10th October

Where: The Beatrix Paviljoen

Time: 5.00pm

We will have some drinks and the dinner will be served around 5.30pm.

Ons Dorp water woes one afternoon in August — now all fixed!

Happy Hours & visitors

Because some of us have visitors on Happy Hour nights, at a recent committee meeting it was voted that any villager may bring along a visiting friend or family member to Happy Hour, but the visitors will be charged $5 cash to cover 2 drinks only. This money can be given to any committee member who will then advise Brian O'Connor. Brian will issue 2 vouchers to be used by the visitor that night.

This will apply from 1 October 2025

Notice for all the Blokes

Rein van Staalduinen is puzzled!
Please check your garage for a green metal box containing a power drill.

Just before leaving for a two months holiday in May, I lent my hammer action power drill to a needy villager who had to drill holes in concrete. That person probably tried to return it and found me not home, and over time forgot, probably still sitting in the garage.

Please return my drill to villa
18, thanks,
Rein van Staalduinen

DIVAs exhibition at the museum —18 September, 2025

What a lovely time we had on Thursday September 18. We left in the van at 10.30am and proceeded to the Auckland Domain and then onto the “Divas” Exhibition at the Museum.

We didn't really know what to expect to begin with, but none of those who went were disappointed. The Museum really excelled itself. When we entered the exhibition, we were each handed earphones so that we could get an audio experience as well as seeing the “Divas”, and what a great experience that was.

As we slowly meandered through the exhibit we could hear the voices of performers such as Maria Callas, Greta Garbo, Audrey Hepburn, Billy Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Marilyn Monroe to Beyoncé, Elton John, Tina Turner, Whitney Houston, and many more, too many to list.

We had coffee and nibbles at the café in the Museum and some of us went to view other things as well.

All in all, a nice way to spend a rainy day. Thanks to Rein for being our driver. Flora

Power consumption in the Pavilion.

The Society committee received a letter from Roelof regarding some matters of concern. Please read his letter below, and if you are in charge of locking up after events, do please take note, because as he says "we all pay for the power"!

Many thanks to Roelof for pointing out these important details, Eirene

Subject	Power Consumption

"Hi Eirene,

I have a complaint, which is the following:
On several occasions I have and with me several other villagers have notify me from time to time, that after any event in the Pavilion and nobody being in the building:
Lights were NOT switched off,
Doors and windows NOT being locked,
Heaters being switched on, but not being switched off.

Residents who activate any appliance, heater, lights, open doors and or windows are responsible to switch them off then check and lock doors and windows.

This is irresponsible!!!!

In the past I put a flyer on the entrance door of the Pavilion, but I'm not too sure if it is still there. Villagers must remember that they do finance all costs associated with the day to day running of anything in "Ons Dorp"!!, incl power. I suggest somebody should put something in the Dorpskrant, to reduce ever increasing power bills. Enjoy your Sunday afternoon. Cheers, Roelof"

A later email from Roelof asking me to add this point: "In my previous email, I forgot to mention that the radio next to the piano should be switched off at the wall. Often forgotten".

Sjoelen

We always look forward to the 4th Friday of the month when we play Sjoelen at the Pavilion. This is such a fun game, no teams, so no pressure to win!

We usually play with different people each month which is a nice way to get to know one another, and we always stop for a cuppa and chat. Some lucky people even win a prize! Thanks Antonia and Frans for organising such a pleasant activity for us to enjoy,

Market in the village

The Market in the village has been going for many years, it has been impossible to find out, when the start date was. We do know that it's been going for more than fifteen years. Many villagers and outside Society members visit the Market every last Friday of the month. We would like to see more people, as this Market is for every villager. The proceeds go to the Society. This helps the society to organize Happy hours, coach trips and dinners throughout the year. So you see it's important to support the Market.

Many thanks to all the volunteers that are there every Market day, to set up , sell and tidy up again, serve coffee, sell tickets, sell in the shop, etc., etc. Too many to name. For the new villagers that have not been able to get to the Market yet, here are some off the goods that are sold. Vegetables in jars and cans, soups, spices, and a great assortment of biscuits. There are tables with knick-knacks, craftwork, with very nice presents for little ones. The cheese man, also the herring man with witlof (chicory) and of course herring (a real Dutch treat for many.) There are freshly deep-fried beef croquettes a real treat. You can test your luck by buying a few tickets in the raffle. To finish this off, coffee or tea are served for free. So come to the Market, have a look, do some shopping, have a cuppa and a chat with the people around you.
